NHBW INC.

Members-at-Large Makes a Difference

The National Hook-up of Black Women, Inc., (NHBW, Inc.) is a non-profit charitable organization that advocates for issues unique to the needs of women and their families since 1973.

NHBW Inc. initiates and supports programs and provides services and resources to help improve the well-being of women and their families. Our primary advocacy areas are:

- HEALTHCARE
- FAMILY
- EDUCATION AND ECONOMIC EQUITY
- DOMESTIC VIOLENCE PREVENTION
- ARTS AND CULTURE

To achieve our goals, we partner with individuals, organizations and institutions at both the local and national levels.

The NHBW membership meets collectively at its annual conference to review accomplished works and adopt initiatives for the year ahead. Members-at-Large (MAL) perform a vital role in helping NHBW achieve organizational goals.

NHBW Inc. Chapters @ Work

Our goal is to affect the community at its source. Attained achievement comes through the empowerment of local chapters who best define the needs of their communities and who can, as the need dictates, institute programs effectively at the grass roots level that are within the scope of NHBW's national agenda. NHBW Inc. chapters are located across the United States. Each are unwavering in their commitment to reach women on issues that affect their wellbeing such as healthcare, family, education, economic equity, and protection against violence. As a Member-at-Large, you become a member of a dynamic group of women making a difference in the lives of women and their families across the United States.

NHBW Members-at-Large

There is no wrong door to enter when joining NHBW as a member-at-large. You may join by contacting any local chapter by mail, by calling, or through the Internet. Also, Members-at-Large (MAL) may join by contacting the National Office.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

MAL are persons who want to become a part of and support the work of NHBW, but who may live in a community or state without a local chapter. Member benefits include a quarterly newsletter, member-only access to the website, information on and participation in upcoming national events, networking opportunities, an invitation to the Annual Conference, an NHBW, Inc. membership card and pin, and participation in chapter activities nearest your area.

MEMBERSHIP EXPECTATIONS

- Individuals seeking membership in NHBW must be committed to work and share the labor necessary to achieve National and chapter goals.
- MAL members must faithfully accept the challenge to serve as opportunity for service arises and as their talents and health permits.

TO BECOME A MEMBER

- Complete the membership enrollment form on this brochure or go to the NHBW website and click on Membership.
- Include a check or money order for the $50.00 MAL annual dues
- Mail your enrollment form to the address indicated on the form along with your dues. You will receive confirmation of receipt of your dues within five (5) business days.
